The Orpheum.

Last night Boggs and Hasward appeared in an amusing sketch "The Two Lunatics." Armstrong and O'Neil repeated their two-round boxing exhibition; the presence of Martin Denny and party in the audience adding if possible a little extra ginger to the contest. Travels showed to advantage in his clever entertainment. Trixie Coleman's "turn" was an outrage. While censuring the individual the public will sympathize with the management whose efforts to make the Orpheum a high-class show home are at times, so unexpectedly handicapped.

The case of Lily Spencer, charged with selling spirituous liquor at Kamohili will come up for trial tomorrow. There will be about fifty witnesses called.
